Description

Type of artwork: An Original Antique Watercolour Painting Surface: Paper Artist and signature: Signed by Henry Bailey (1851–1933) Approximate age of artwork: Circa Late 19th Century Depiction or Location: A finely executed late-19th to early-20th century British watercolour depicting a rural landscape with figures, rendered with subtle tonal control and an excellent sense of distance and atmosphere. The restrained palette and careful handling of farmland and sky are characteristic of the English East Anglian school. The work is signed "Henry Bailey" and attributed to Henry Bailey (1851–1933), an established British watercolourist who exhibited widely, including at the Royal Academy, Royal Society of British Artists, and the Royal Institute of Painters in Water Colours. Bailey was also a member of the Ipswich Fine Art Club and worked extensively in Essex and Suffolk. Is the artwork Framed or Mounted: Framed, as shown. Important notice regarding frames – please read carefully. Items which are presented in frames are usually the old original frames which came with the artwork. We would typically only remove the frames if they were severely broken or damaged. In line ...
