Description

Antique 20th century bow front cabinet made from mahogany, very well made and of good quality. The piece features a beautiful bow-fronted design with glazed sections on either side, each fitted with a single shelf on the inside, perfect for displaying decorative pieces. To the centre is a single drawer above a double door cupboard with two interior shelves, offering excellent storage space. Stood on elegant square legs, this cabinet retains all its original brass handles and fittings, along with a working key. The top is adorned with attractive fretwork decoration, adding a refined touch to its classic form. With gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example in good condition—both functional and decorative, making it a perfect addition to any home.
