Description

This is a large antique campaign silver presentation table. An Anglo-Indian, 4 seater colonial dining or tea table, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840. Striking petal form table, being a delightful early Victorian example of campaign furniture. Crafted in mahogany and fruitwood, with rich caramel hues. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good antique order throughout. Campaign top folds upon internal hinges for ease of movement. Table edge with wavy form, redolent of a flowerhead when viewed from above. Engraved flowerhead medallion accentuates the centre of the table. Fretwork detail surrounds the medallion, with foliate relief. Stands prominently upon a broad base with tall cabriole legs. This is an exceptional antique campaign silver presentation table, with striking visual appeal. Generous size for informal dining, with the added appeal of folding for occasional use. Solid joints and construction, delivered ready for the home.
