Description

We are delighted to offer this wonderful antique French 18ct gold & silver brooch made c.1900. The brooch featured a solid 18ct gold back and a silver front in the form of fleur-de-lis. Elegantly sculpted with particular attention to exquisite curves and angles on the surface, this brooch certainly presents an air of importance and splendour. The front is set with various old rose-cut diamonds, and the silver setting complements its colour scheme, culminating in a chic and stylish presentation. On the reverse side, a pin and clasp as well as a safety chain are present, allowing for the brooch to be worn with versatility. Splendid in a collection, but better yet, perfect for wearing with a variety of outfits, whether it be for a special occasion or to an evening party where diamonds would occasionally glisten and come to life under spotlights. Ideal on a jacket lapel, a stylish blouse in the warmer months or on a one-piece dress for more formal occasions, this brooch would grace and immediately elevate your outfit with a single point of distinguished interest. An exquisite gift for someone special or as an addition for the discerning antique jewellery lover. Diamond...
