Description

We are delighted to offer this lovely antique Victorian 15ct gold brooch c.1880. Featuring a central cross bejewelled with half pearls, the brooch presents a beautiful design of symmetry and symbolism. A circular wreath connects the points with intricately set old rose-cut diamonds which complement the pearls. The combination of diamonds and pearls with a wonderfully soft lustre radiates an air of regality, whilst its colour scheme maintains a modest yet elegant tone. Ideal to be worn as a brooch on a jumper, lapel or shirt, this piece would make for the perfect wardrobe accoutrement for the distinguished individual. Furthermore, a chain can be looped behind the pin allowing it to be worn as a pendant. An exquisite gift for someone special or as an addition for the discerning antique jewellery lover. Diamond is known to be the birthstone for April and pearls for June. The brooch is unmarked, as is common with articles of this period and as such, we have tested it, indicating 15ct gold. All of our jewellery comes with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a velvet interior. Size & Total Weight 2.4cm x 2.2cm 3.45g/0.111 troy oz Condition: good antique condition...
