Description

Edwardian Mahogany Triple Wardrobe with Drawers A fine quality Edwardian mahogany triple wardrobe, offering generous storage and elegant proportions. Crafted in richly figured mahogany, the wardrobe features a well-balanced façade with two full-height mirrored doors flanking a central section fitted with cupboard doors above a bank of drawers. The central cupboard doors are beautifully panelled and open to reveal hanging space, while below are four graduated drawers, each fitted with original brass handles and providing ample storage. The two outer mirrored doors open to reveal full-height hanging compartments, ideal for coats and garments. The mirrors retain pleasing aged character, consistent with the period. Finished with a moulded cornice and standing on a shaped plinth base, this wardrobe combines practicality with refined Edwardian design, making it a striking and functional addition to a bedroom or dressing room. Key Features: * Edwardian period mahogany wardrobe * Triple-door configuration with two mirrored outer doors * Central cupboard with hanging space over four drawers * Original brass handles * Elegant moulded cornice and shaped base * Good colour and grain ...
