Description

The most refined accoutrement for the Georgian gentleman! We may think the desire for the latest bathroom fittings is purely a modern affliction, however this a condition that has long effected society! This George III mahogany combination washstand, mirror and bidet is a marvel of compact construction & still as usable & functional today as it was the day it was made. The hinged top opens to an interior with apertures for a washbowl, various cups and a pull up mirror. The body of the cabinet has a cupboard, drawers and a pull bidet to one side. Compact, stylish convenience at its best! Please see our other listings for more antique, retro and vintage furniture. Dimensions- height with mirror out 124cm and width with mirror out 115cm
