Description

This fantastic handcrafted Greek-style cameo ring, circa 1850-1901, depicts a male head, facing to his left, carved into shell. Bordering this claw set cameo is a border of twenty baroque pearls of a grey hue. The gallery is raised with solid sides, leading into bead-detailed split shoulders and a plain band. This ring, circa the late Victorian era, has been electronically tested as 9ct gold. It is in good condition with light marks commensurate with age. Please find the Expert Report (see the end image in the gallery) for more detailed information.
