Description

17th/18thC Polish School Oil on Canvas Double Portrait Painting Religious Icon Brief Description: This is a fabulous and rare late 17th/early 18th-century Polish School Oil on Canvas Double Portrait Painting depicting the elegant Black Madonna of Czeszochowa with the infant Christ Child. Circa 1670-1710 As one can see from these images, the sitters have adorable facial expressions with excellent attention to detail to their period, religious clothing. The work is currently mounted (unframed). It displays well without a frame; however, I believe the piece is deserving of an impressive/quality period frame to show it off to its full potential. Indeed, it is a fascinating oil that has the all-important Old Master charm. Attributes: Oil on relined canvas Polish School Circa: late 17th/early 18th-century Condition: The painting presents beautifully, having undergone a full and professional restoration sometime during the 20th-century.
