

SA1189401

Victorian 18 Carat Gold Sword Jabot Pin with Old Cut Diamonds, Cannelille, c.1860-80

Price

GBP 850

| USD $1,150 | EUR 995

Item Reference: SA1189401Date of manufacture: Victorian

Description

A very stylish Victorian gold sword brooch / jabot pin of fine quality, dating to circa 1860–1880. The piece is crafted in high-carat yellow gold, acid tested as 18 carat (750), and richly decorated with cannetille work. Three old hand-cut diamonds are set to the hilt, with an estimated total weight of 0.28 carat. The diamonds are bright and lively, giving a lovely sparkle against the warm gold. The hilt is well modelled on both sides and the overall effect is both eye-catching and elegant. This is a good-sized piece that wears particularly well on the lapel of a jacket or coat, and would make an excellent addition to any collection of Victorian jewellery. Details Date: c.1860–1880 Period: Victorian Metal: 18ct yellow gold (tested 750) Stones: 3 old cut diamonds, approx. calculated weight 0.28ct total Length: 76 mm Width: 25 mm Weight: 4.57 g Condition: excellent throughout; delicate cannetille decoration in very good order, clasp firm and secure.

Seller Details

Touch of Time Antiques

Nottinghamshire United Kingdom

Tel: 07593 802248

International Tel: +44 7593 802248

