Description

Very attractive and iconic English Art Deco Savoy Hostess trolley cart dating from the 1920s-1930s period. This three-tiered trolley not only looks impressive but is very functional too. Solid walnut in a warm colouring on it's original rubber and metal casters. The condition is extremely good having been fully and professionally restored by our workshop. Very sturdy, free from damage and glides with ease, really makes this piece a pleasure to use. There really are now flaws to mention. The trolley glides effortlessly and is the perfect piece which offers not only kerb appeal but functionality too. Perfect piece for serving food or drinks to your guests and great talking point.
