Description

Edward Ladell British, (1821–1886) Still Life of Fruit & Wine Glass Oil on canvas, signed Image size: 8 inches x 10 inches Size including frame: 16.25 inches x 18.25 inches A beautifully painted still life of fruit and a wine glass by Edward Ladell. A Peach, pear and black grapes are depicted with raspberries on a carved wooden table top. Behind them, a globe shaped wine goblet half filled with white wine can be seen nestled in green fabric. A reflection in the glass reveals two windows with buildings beyond, adding a three dimensional aspect to the painting. Edward Ladell was born in Hasketon, Suffolk on 12 April, 1821 the son of Christmas Ladell a coachbuilder and his wife Mary Birch. He was a self-taught artist and initially worked in his father's business in Colchester as an engraver. He is also believed to have worked as a pattern designer for a Flemish textile company in Colchester. In 1848 he married Julianna Roofe and they spent their married life living at East Hill in Colchester. During his spare time he began producing still life paintings in the Dutch traditions and in 1856 made his debut at the Royal Academy with a 'Study from Nature'. He also exhibited ...
