Date of manufacture: 1850

Description

A richly detailed Stone China dinner plate by John Ridgway, circa 1850s, showcasing the vivid "Penang" pattern (No. 4118). Executed in the Napier shape, this piece is a fine example of English chinoiserie, with printed and hand-painted imagery of pavilions, vases with flower arrangements and landscape scenes. Marked to the reverse with the printed J-R and Penang pattern marks backstamp and iron-red pattern no 4118. - Dimensions: 25.5 cm diameter - Condition: Excellent antique condition; minimal enamel wear and rim rubs commensurate with age.
