Description

A fabulous silver condiment tub, dating from the Georgian period and made by the great Paul Storr. This superb example has a lobed body with a fluted rim. The body stands on three cast acanthus leaf feet and the interior is richly gilded. The original use would have been for salt but with the advantage of good capacity, the tub lends itself to a variety of table uses, such as mint sauce, cranberry, mayonnaise or parmesan. The quality of the silver is superb as one would expect from this towering name and the tub is fully hallmarked. Dimensions below. Postage and packing £12.00 UK £20.00 Europe £85.00 USA (including 10% tariff) £8.00 Outside Europe Condition :- Excellent, with no dents, breaks or splits. The gilding is in good condition. Hallmarks :- Clear and readable. Date :- London 1826. Maker :- Paul Storr. Height :- 4.7 cms. Diameter :- 9 cms.
