Description

This is an exceptional large 19th century Circular table with the most incredible Purple and pink marble. Italian in origin and totally original with minor nibbles to the veneer in parts but nothing major. The marble is clean and near perfect condition. The table is very large making it an ideal centre table in a large entrance hall or dining table. There are two drawers that open smoothly and shut flush. The marquetry inlay covers the whole base and is finely done with no significant losses. The design is elegant and the colour of the marble really is special.
