

GBP 1,185

Date of manufacture: Victorian

Depth = 50 cm (19.7")

Victorian walnut serpentine card table Here we are delighted to offer you this fine Victorian walnut serpentine card table. Owning this elegant Victorian walnut serpentine card table will give you much pleasure, designed to give elegance, also practicality. The serpentine outline of the top with a fine moulded edge. The top swivels to reveal the storage under and then the top folds over on brass hinges to reveal the blush playing surface. It stands on lyre end supports with fine carved cabriole legs with porcelain castors under, these are joined by a well turned pole stretcher Imagine playing bridge or card games around this wonderful table and how this was the centre piece to a family in the Victorian period where their pastimes were enjoyed with their family and friends. Only a well-heeled family could afford such a table, and so the finest cabinet makers were commissioned to make high quality pieces that showed the success the family were enjoying. . _____ Key Features • Serpentine shape • Constructed from fine burr walnut and solid walnut to the base • Baize playing surface • Stands on wonderful lyre ends • Wonderfully designed with...

International Tel: +44 1722 742 263 or +44 788 787 0569