Description

This Louis Philippe commode (c.1870) is a quintessential example of 19th-century French design, characterized by its "doughine" (hidden) top drawer and clean, rounded lines. There is some old woodworm that has long gone. The piece has great colour and a fantastic marble top. The combination of the swirling grain of the figured walnut and beautiful fossil marble, makes this a high-quality piece. 126cm wide x 54cm deep x 95.5cm high
