Description

Pair of 19th-century mahogany umbrella stands, each of cylindrical form and finished in a deep, warm patina. The bodies are encircled with brass bands and centred with decorative brass lion's mask ring handles, lending a classical and refined appearance. Each stand is raised on a turned circular base, providing both stability and architectural presence. The interiors retain their original removable metal drip liners, designed to protect the mahogany and accommodate umbrellas or walking sticks. The stands show light surface wear, minor marks, and patina consistent with age and use. Dimensions Height 26 Inches Width 13 Inches Depth 13 Inches
