Description

A stunning and very rare heart pendant in a glossy, red guilloché enamel adorned with tiny gold stars and surrounded by natural turquoise cabochons. The back is fully encased in gold and the pendant comes complete with nine-carat gold chain as pictured. The heart was made by Harold Arthur Lazarus - a London jeweller listed at the 1947 British Industries Fair as "Manufacturer of fine diamond-set paste jewellery and semi-precious stone jewellery". His company was known for its high-quality gold and silver jewellery, often in antique revival styles. SIZE: The pendant measures 2.5cm across. The chain is approximately 21 inches (approx 53cm) long. TOTAL WEIGHT: 9.6g. MATERIALS: Nine-carat (375) gold, enamel, turquoise. Nine-carat gold chain. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: The pendant is hallmarked for nine-carat gold, London 1959 and bears the sponsor's mark HAL. The chain is hallmarked for nine-carat gold, Sheffield 1983, and the clasp and bail are also stamped 375. CONDITION: In excellent vintage condition. ERA: Pendant 1959, chain 1983.
