Description

Interesting georgian bone counter box, possibly prisoner of war work. The top is beautifully decorated engraving is stained with colour and the inscription reads "A Trifle from London". There is a later label to the base of the box which reads Beetles from Ceylon, I have left this on as its part of the items history. The side of the box clearly shows that it is made from bone. Circa 1800 - 1820. Dia 4 cm H 1.8 cm
