Description

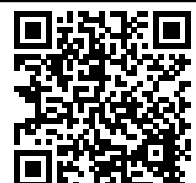

Early 19th Century Mahogany & Satinwood Small Bow Fronted Caddy Top Chest Of Drawers This nicely proportioned small bow fronted chest of three drawers of good colour is veneered in figured mahogany & satinwood banding to the top, finished with a tulipwood, ebony & box crossbanding. The frieze is also crossbanded in mahogany & finished with an ebony & box stringing, together with ebony & box stringing to the plinth & the sides of the chest. The chest stands on elegantly splayed feet. The drawers are fitted with gilded lion mask oval handles; the drawer linings are constructed of solid oak. The chest retains a period key & all the locks have been serviced & are in working order. A good quality chest presented in fine showroom condition. All our chests of drawers are cleaned throughout, with smooth running drawers & are ready to use. Chair shown for scale.
