Description

Splendid large bronze figure of a medieval knight or warrior c.1900. Measuring 36" tall to the tip of the sword. Dressed in a helmet and chain mail tunic, with a dagger at his waist and carrying a large kite shaped shield on his left arm which features (unusually) a Latin cross with the cross of St Andrew (or Saltire) behind, suggesting a Scottish connection perhaps. With his right arm he raises a long broadsword in salute or victory. Very well cast in bronze with superb colour and detail. Stood on an 18" x 12" base. Signed in the cast E Bull (or Butt?). Excellent condition. Note the sword is removable for delivery. Width: 20" (51 cm) Height: 36" (91.5 cm) Depth: 16" (40.5 cm)

Internal Ref: 38240
