Description

Super late 17th century English fruitwood panelled side chest of drawers, circa 1680. Useful size if you're using it for bedroom storage, but being such a fabulous warm fruitwood colour tone and the style will lend itself to a decorative piece in a living room for example. Side drawer runners are all in good shape, so the drawers run smoothly. Being around 340 years old, there are age marks here and there, but nothing of any concern and just mentioning for transparency. Really is a great piece of furniture and of such a good age too! Measuring: 32" or 81.5cm high 38 1/2" or 98cm wide 22 3/4" or 57.5cm deep
