Description

Fine hand-coloured 18th century topographical engraving titled "A View of the Walton Bridge, Venus's Temple &c in the Garden of Sir Francis Dashwood Bt at West Wycomb the County of Bucks" This highly detailed print retains its vibrant colours and is housed within its original Perawoo frame. It was created by the artist William Hannan, who produced several views of West Wycombe Park between 1751 and 1754 and it depicts a picturesque scene in the garden of Sir Francis Dashwood at West Wycombe, Buckinghamshire, England. The image shows a bridge, a temple dedicated to Venus, and a distant view of the main house on the hill. This wonderful print was published in London for R. Marshall at N.4 Aldermary Church Yard and centuries later it would make a wonderful gift.
