Description

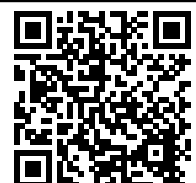

A lovely pair of antique Edwardian silver pepper pots. Made in London in 1904 by the famous Goldsmiths and Silversmiths company. They have removable tops, both the bodies and the tops have full sets of crisp hallmarks. These are proper pepper pots and not casters as the card cut designs on the tops are covered inside so only the holes allow pepper to come through. They are in excellent condition and very useable. They are a matching pair with matching hallmarks. Weight; 230 grams or 7.4 ozst Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna.
