Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive, rare antique German sterling silver table figure/goblet set; an addition to our range of collectable silverware. These exceptional antique sterling silver goblets have been realistically modelled in the form of a seated orchestra. The surface of each figure is embellished with an array of embossed, chased and cast decoration, replicating the details of each figure's anatomical features and attire. The nine orchestra members are holding a variety of instruments, including: horns, wind instruments, a drum and cymbals; the tenth figure bears a conductor's baton. Each whimsical Dutch inspired figure bears a detachable cover ornamented with ribbon tied ruffled collars. The covers are each surmounted with a sprung 'bobble head', bearing a variety of facial features and expressions. Each circular rounded beaker/goblet is supported by matching four-legged chairs. The goblets retain the original gilt interiors. The hallmarks struck to the surface of these impressive ornaments include: Maker's mark: n (Neresheimer & Co.) Hanau marks: Untraced* Importer's mark: BM (B Muller & Son (Berthold Muller)) Assay mark: London/Chester, England Sil...
