Description

A very fine pair of 19th Century French child's armchairs in the Napoleon X style. With square backs inset with oval upholstered panel above swept arms, supported on vase shaped spiral-twisted uprights and over-stuffed seats. Raised on spiral twisted, turned and tapering legs. Edged throughout with gilded egg and dart and plain border lines and carved ribbon and floral highlights. In very good original condition with original paintwork and gilding throughout. Upholstery has wear commensurate with age and marked but without tears or conspicuous stains. A very rare and decorative pair of chairs.
