Description

A beautifully carved bleached oak sideboard, circa 1920, featuring rich hand-tooled detailing throughout. The front is adorned with intricate floral and geometric carvings, framed by bold column-style supports and deep foliate borders. Offering excellent storage, the piece includes two central drawers with wooden knobs and cupboards to either side, each with carved panelled doors and working locks with keys. Raised on carved turned legs and a full-length lower shelf. The bleached oak finish highlights the grain and gives the piece a light, timeless look—perfect for both period and contemporary interiors. W 167cm (65.75") D 46cm (18") H 89cm (35") Lower shelf H 31.5cm (12.5")
