Description

A lovely antique Mahal carpet dating from the early 20th century, in brilliant full pile and condition. A soft wool pile all over and woven with natural dyes, we can see a variety of muted greens and pale blues, delicate pinks and hints of yellow. All on a soft red main background colour, all professionally cleaned and in original order it is ready to use on the floor. Not having a central medallion makes this an easy antique carpet to place in a variety of rooms. Woven around circa 1910 the colours have faded beautifully, these decorative carpets are full of charm and suit country houses to London apartments. Please request a home visit to see this antique Mahal carpet in-situ, you can select a convenient day and time for us to visit from our website.
