

SA1190783

Wood Engraving depicting the march toward Kabul of the British army - Second Anglo-Afghan War

Price

GBP 350

| USD $473 | EUR 409

Item Reference: SA1190783

Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

Xylography illustrating the British army's advance toward Kabul during the Second Anglo-Afghan War (1878–1880), featuring Gurkha soldiers of Nepalese descent and elephants. Title: "The Afghan War, Cabul Expeditionary Force, 3rd Goorkhas on the March through the Terai." This work was created for "The Illustrated London News" and published on 30 November 1878. Later hand coloured. Author: Charles Robinson (active 1866–1880), artist, engraver, and illustrator for "The Illustrated London News." Overall 73.5cm x 60.5cm Image only 49cm x 33cm

Seller Details

Pareglio & Ayres Antiques Interiors

102 Wincheap Canterbury Kent CT1 3RS United Kingdom

Tel: 0755 4708628

International Tel: +44755 4708628

