Description

This antique Art Nouveau 9ct gold pendant is a fine example of late 19th to early 20th-century design, featuring a harmonious combination of a synthetic ruby, aquamarine, and seed pearl. The gemstones are elegantly arranged in a circular openwork frame, enhanced by a subtle rose tinge to the gold that complements the pastel tones beautifully. The piece captures the flowing, organic essence of the Art Nouveau period, displaying both artistry and balance in its composition. A superb pendant full of period charm and craftsmanship. Part of our antique pendant collection. SPECIFICATION Diameter. 24mm (excluding drop and bail) Weight. 3.1 grams Metal. 9k gold STAMPS & HALLMARKS Stamped 9CT & 375 Maker's mark. TW&c CONDITION Excellent. The gemstones are all in superb condition and the gold shows only the lightest signs of wear, retaining its soft antique hue. A fine example of art nouveau jewellery.
