Description

This antique 18ct gold and platinum trilogy ring features a vivid sapphire between two bright old-cut diamonds. The central sapphire displays an excellent, rich royal blue tone that contrasts beautifully with the crisp light of the diamonds. Together, they form a harmonious trio that captures the refined simplicity of early 20th-century jewellery design. The slim gold band and platinum settings give the gemstones a clean, classic presentation, typical of fine antique craftsmanship. This is a wonderfully balanced piece, elegant yet full of life and colour. Part of our antique sapphire and diamond ring collection.
