Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive pair of vintage American sterling silver two light candelabra; an addition to our ornamental American silverware collection. These exceptional, fine and impressive vintage American sterling silver candelabra have a circular shaped form, from the Spring Glory suite design. Each impressive two light candelabrum retains the original scrolling arms, supporting two rounded organic-shaped swept capitals. The lower portion of each capital bears four ball motifs, all in the classic Arts and Crafts style. The conjoining portion of the bifurcating labra incorporates a stylised tulip bud (known as the fleur danoise/Danish flower) with a spiralling stem design; bearing the influence of the craftsman's time studying silversmithing in Denmark with Georg Jensen*. The vintage silver floriated columns surmount an unweighted plain silver circular swept foot, with a plain collet rim. This pair of American sterling silver candelabra offers refined elegance and presence, making a distinguished centrepiece for formal interiors and an exceptional gift for weddings, anniversaries or milestone celebrations.
