Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 2.81 carat opal and 0.71 carat diamond, silver and 18 carat yellow gold set pendant; part of our antique jewellery collections. This stunning, fine and impressive Victorian pendant has been crafted in silver with 18ct yellow gold settings. This pendant displays a central feature yellow gold claw set oval cabochon white opal. The pierced decorated foliated, scrolling frame is embellished with forty pavé and claw set diamonds, in a combination of Old European and eight cuts. The lower border of the pendant supports three individually articulating yellow gold claw set cabochon cut white opals, completing the design. This antique Victorian opal pendant is suspended from an 18ct yellow gold chain via an escutcheon-shaped bale ornamented with four further pavé set diamonds. This antique opal pendant has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold and silver. This impressive example of Victorian jewellery is supplied with an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report card. This opal and diamond pendant necklace reflects the Victorian admiration for opals, long valued ...
