Description

A very fine and unusual pair of 19th Century Country House ladies and gentleman's well figured mahogany armchairs. This gorgeous pair of chairs are of exceptional quality and stunningly hand carved with beautifully rich patination, grain and reupholstered in a striking new red leather hide with decorative brass studding throughout. The shaped back rail features an exquisitely carved centred female masque flanked with richly trailing acanthus leaves, foliate, scrolls and decorative gadroon motif detail. Raised over a padded button back and padded seat flanked with shaped arm rests with scroll terminals. The simple moulded frieze is supported above elegantly tapering leg with fabulous paw feet, terminating on well cast brass casters. Mahogany Type: 'Santos Mahogany' Seat Height: 18 in / 45.7 cm
