Description

Here's a lovely old pine larder cupboard dating from around 1900, in very nice condition for its age. It features a single cupboard door on the right-hand side and four drawers running down the left. The piece is currently in bare wood, having been recently stripped, and appears to have had a replacement plinth fitted at some point. Each drawer is fitted with a central wooden knob, and the cupboard door retains its original metal ventilation grille. The door is hung on French-style external hinges, allowing it to open almost fully and giving excellent access to the interior. Inside, there's a shallow shelf at the top with two full-depth shelves below, all well fitted and practical as they are. The drawers all run smoothly. When the door is closed, it currently secures the drawers, though this can be altered so the drawers remain accessible even with the door shut, if preferred. Available for £610 as it is, or £697 if you'd like it waxed. Dimensions: height 56.5", width 37.5", depth 15" (approximately 144 cm x 95 cm x 38 cm).
