Description

Painted Open Bookcase – Sympathetically Finished, Circa late 19th century A handsome open bookcase, sympathetically painted in soft, heritage tones that highlight its architectural form and period character. The exterior is finished in a gentle cream with subtle distressing, while the interior adjustable shelves are painted in a contrasting sage green, offering a fresh yet historically sensitive palette. Comprising two vertical bays with four adjustable shelves each, the bookcase is crowned with a dentil-moulded cornice and framed by clean lines that speak to craftsmanship. Ideal for displaying books, decorative objects, or curated collections, this piece brings understated elegance and practical charm to any interior. Perfect for use in drawing rooms, studies, or retail settings seeking authentic vintage appeal.
