Description

19th Century Dutch Mahogany Chest of Drawers Item Code: S27-728A A fine 19th century Dutch chest of drawers, constructed in richly figured mahogany and displaying the bold serpentine form and sculptural quality characteristic of Dutch furniture of the period. The chest features a shaped moulded top above three long graduated drawers, each fitted with ornate gilt brass handles and matching escutcheons. The bombe-shaped sides flow elegantly into a carved apron and stout cabriole legs terminating in carved claw feet, giving the piece strong presence and visual depth. The mahogany has developed a warm, mellow patina, enhancing the curves and proportions throughout. A striking and decorative chest, well suited to both traditional interiors and statement placement within more eclectic settings.
