Description

A fine quality Gothic Reform tall bench or hall / side table, in the manner of A.W.N. Pugin, the single plank seat or top on curved 'X' frame stop chamfered supports joined by a single turned tapering stretcher with a central roundel and pegged joints at each end. The height of this piece makes it a good bench for tall people, but it would also make a good narrow console table for a hallway or under a window. Condition: A couple of old marks and splits to the top. Otherwise in good original condition with no issues, ready to go.
