Description

A fine pair of Victorian silver candlesticks with clear hallmarks for Sheffield 1894 and makers mark for Hawksworth Eyre & Co. These candlesticks reflect the taste of Queen Victoria's heir, Prince Edward, later Edward VII, who with his wife Alexandra, were leaders of taste and fashion at the time. The design echoes the classical elegance of the Regency era, with the oval shape and the scalloped petal pattern on the bases and sconces, interlinked by fluted shafts, and reeded edging. The sconces separate from the top and are hallmarked. The height is 22cm, a medium but not dwarf height. They are in excellent condition. Loaded weight 30oz/920gr.
