Description

This handsome prayer-rug, made during the early to mid 19th century in Konya, central Anatolia, has a stunning red field and an equally attractive pea-green mihrab. The overall condition of the rug is very good albeit the pile is consistently, evenly-low all-over. A truly beautiful and very collectible rug which would look stunning hanging on the wall. Size: 1.60 x 1.08m (5' 3" x 3' 6").
