Description

A French Old Paris porcelain vase de mariée, dating from the first half of the 19th century. Produced by a Parisian workshop during the Vieux Paris period, the vase exemplifies the decorative porcelain made for refined domestic interiors. The form is compact yet solid, with a broad, softly wavy rim, applied scroll handles and a stable foot. Vases of this type were traditionally given as wedding gifts and used as ornamental flower holders. Decorated in the French Vieux Paris tradition, the vase features a deep cobalt-blue ground, generous gilding and hand-painted floral decoration centred with a medallion of roses. The decorative style recalls Paris workshop production associated with Jacob Petit. Dimensions: Height 15.5 cm; Width 15 cm; Depth 11.2 cm. Weight 546 g. Condition: Minor losses to gilding consistent with age. A firing crack to the base from manufacture. Otherwise in excellent antique condition. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully as they form an integral part of this description. If you have any questions, we will be happy to answer them. The item will be shipped with full tracking and insurance. It is important to note that shipping costs ...
