Description

A good example of a set of 6 antique butter knives with sterling silver handles and silver plated blades. They are good quality pieces with decorative details on the handles. Each piece is fully hallmarked for Sheffield, 1919 and the maker John Biggin. They are in very good condition for their age. The handles have a few minor dents and dinks on and there is some minor wear around the edges of the blades however they display well as a set. They have been gently cleaned and polished and are ready for use. The set comes in its original fitted box with a velvet and silk interior. The box is in good condition with some minor staining and wear to the silk bands on the hinges and some light scuffs and marks around the edges but nothing detrimental. Approximate Measurements : Length of Knife : 6 1/4" / 16cm Box : 8 1/4" / 21cm x 6 1/4" / 16cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
