Description

A beautifully proportioned 19th century mahogany Pembroke table, retaining attractive original painted decoration. The table is fitted with a single drawer to one side and two hinged drop leaves, offering flexibility of use. The top is decorated with a finely painted central classical scene, framed by floral garlands and scrolling motifs, complemented by further painted decoration to the frieze and legs. Standing on tapering legs with original castors, this piece displays elegant proportions and refined craftsmanship. In excellent condition, with minor wear commensurate with age. Structurally sound and ready for use. An appealing example of decorative English furniture from the 19th century. Measurements - Height 71cm x Width 76cm x Depth 48cm
