Description

An English late 19th century fine bronze commemorative study of Queen Victoria in 1897, celebrating her diamond jubilee. She is regally standing in full ceremonial attire, wearing her crown, sash, and medals and holding the orb and sceptre. This finally modelled and detailed figure was sculpted by the 19th century artist E E Geffowski, (1834 – 1898) and retailed by Mappin Brothers of London, located on Regent Street. This is a rare sculpture in excellent original condition with a dark patina and is signed on the bottom edge by the artist and also stamped Mappin Brothers. Emanuel Edward Geffowski was born in Poland and settled in Liverpool in the 1850s before setting up his own workshop as a sculptor and architectural carver. English, 1897 Height 22cm x width 9cm x depth 10cm
