Description

A set of six 19th century thames valley country chairs with prince of wales feather splats. The chairs have fantastic colour and patination, there are signs of wood worm in some of the chairs, along with old restorations commensurate with age. One of the armchairs is in need of full restoration, but the other arm chair and the four singles are in pretty good order with one or two loose joints but well usable as they are. The chairs are made from beech, fruitwood, ash and elm. overall measurements (Armchairs) Height 91.5cm width 45cm depth 40cm (Singles) Height 90.5cm Width 39cm Depth 42.5cm Seat measurements (vary slightly) Height 44.5cm Width 39cm Depth 35-40cm
