Description

Georgian Mahogany Chest of Drawers – A fine example of Georgian craftsmanship, this elegant chest of drawers is constructed from rich, figured mahogany with a lustrous patina that speaks to its age and quality. The piece features four graduated drawers, each adorned with twin brass ring handles and central escutcheons, offering both visual symmetry and practical storage. The drawer fronts are framed with cockbeading, a hallmark of Georgian cabinetry, and the whole is raised on shaped bracket feet with a gently serpentine apron—adding a touch of refinement to its otherwise restrained silhouette. The proportions are balanced and architectural, reflecting the neoclassical influences of the period. This chest would suit a traditional interior or add gravitas to a more eclectic scheme. Its timeless appeal and solid construction make it ideal for both decorative and functional use, whether in a bedroom, hallway, or drawing room. Delivery available nationwide
