Description

A beautiful set of three Victorian side chairs, each with an elegantly shaped back featuring detailed carved decoration and a central roundel motif. The upper back rail is panelled with attractive figured timber, giving the chairs a warm, classical 19th-century character. All three seats are upholstered in a richly patterned fabric in shades of rose, cream and soft grey. The upholstery is in excellent, clean condition, offering both comfort and a decorative touch. Turned front legs and gently splayed back legs add stability and traditional Victorian charm. The frames are solid and stable, showing visible age-related marks, small imperfections and surface wear appropriate for their age these add authenticity and depth to the overall look without affecting structural integrity. Very good antique condition. Frames strong and stable with visible wear consistent with age upholstery in excellent condition. Ready to place and enjoy.
