Description

For offer is a stunning Royal Worcester two handled vase. It has been beautifully painted with sunflowers on shaded green ground by the renowned artist George Cole.. The base is date marked in puce for 1906 and with model 2297. Signed by George Cole. The vase is in excellent condition with vivid colouring. No cracks, chips or repair observed and with only some minor loss of gilt on top rim. George Cole was a notable artist for the Royal Worcester porcelain factory in the early 20th century, particularly known for his work around 1903-1906. His specialty was painting detailed, high-quality floral scenes, often featuring flowers like sunflowers or lilies, frequently on a shaded ground. He moved to Royal Worcester from Grainger's in 1902.
