Description

This vintage 18ct white gold ring features an impressive deep-red cabochon garnet framed by a fine border of small, bright diamonds. The smooth domed surface of the garnet gives the piece a soft, glowing presence, while the diamonds add a light, crisp accent around the edge. The open shoulders and gently contoured band give it a pleasing balance when worn. Distinctive in scale and with a quietly luxurious character, this is a ring that feels both bold and refined. The rich tone of the garnet has a warmth and depth that draws the eye, making it a standout piece for those who enjoy colour and form with substance. Part of our vintage garnet and diamond ring collection. SIZE UK O / US 7 (leading edge) – Free sizing available SPECIFICATION Garnet weight approx. 9.8 carat Face dimensions. 13 x 26mm Weight. 9.7 grams Metal. 18k gold ERA 1960s STAMPS & HALLMARKS Stamped 18K CONDITION Very Good. The garnet shows minor natural surface blemishes visible under a loupe, typical for a cabochon of this age. The diamonds are secure in their settings, and the band shows light, expected wear. The ring retains a pleasing, well-cared-for appearance throughout.
